I'm Not The One
3OH!3

(intro) G#m (Fm) F# (Eb) E (C#)

```
G#m (Fm)           F# (Eb)       E (C#)
   You re way too young to be broken.
   You re way too young to fall apart.
   You re way too young to play these games,
               C#m (Bbm)
But you better start,
               G#m (Fm)
But you better start.

                G#m
This is when it starts,
                          F#
From the beating of your heart
                     E
Till the streetlamps talk to you.

                   G#m
Jumping off of the edge,
                  F#
Oversleeping your head,
                     E
Everything s turning dark to you.

                      G#m
I went to pick up the parts,
                        F#
The doctor s hiding the charts,
                          E
He won t let me see this side of you.

                      G#m
It s on the tip of my tongue,
                        F#
You know you re way too young
                       E ....
To have someone lie to you.

             G#m               F#                E               B
I m not the  one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
    B/A
I m not the  one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
       B/A
You d better find somebody    else and get a   hold of yourself.
    B/A
I m not the  one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
```

(Same pattern)
You re way too young to be broken.
You re way too young to fall apart.
You re way too young to play these games,
But you d better start,
But you d better start.

It was the second I lit
Your first cigarette,
I forget who you used to be.

And I bit my lip
The second you sipped
The poison that was mixed for me.

I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
You d better find somebody else and get a hold of yourself.
I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.

G#m F#
Drink the poison lightly,
E
Cause there are deeper and darker things than you.
C#m
I know cause I ve been there too.

G#m F#
I know it might seem frightening
To have the world fall apart right under your shoes.
C#m
Trust me, you ll make it through.

G#m F# E B
I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
B/A
I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
B/A
You d better find somebody else and get a hold of yourself.
B/A
I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.

I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.
I m not the one, I m not the one who wants to hurt you.

(B G#)
