You re still bright and true

Let caution do it s sleeping

All the burning questions
That complicate the mind
It s the infinite connections
That get us every time

And it s true that nothing s perfect
And you re miracle enough

Your heart s still warm and tender
While most have gotten tough

Tonight s a chance worth taking
If only for a while
And if you keep your eyes wide open
You just might be surprised

But I m willing to bet
Somewhere behind the curtains
There s a night we won t soon forget

And we ll love while love s awake
Yeah, we ll love while love s awake

  A                    D
Before the morning s break-in
        A                E
Before prudence makes us part
         A              D
Let the warnings be forsaken
       A              E
For a matter of the heart
```

[Pre-Chorus]
And we ll let caution do it s sleeping
And hearts are bound to break

[Chorus]
And we ll love while love s awake
Yeah, we ll love while love s awake
And we ll love while love s awake
Yeah, we ll love while love s awake
