TABBED BY: The Jackal

Here s a quick (minute and a half) and easy (3 chords) song by All, off one of their better pre-Interscope albums.

Chords used:

----------------------------------|
----------------------------------|
----9-----------------------------|
----9--------7--------9-----------|
----7--------7--------9-----------|
-------------5--------7-----------|
    E        A        B

E                    A                 E
I thought you could take me away for a minute
E                      A                  B
But now I know it was just that way for a minute
A         B    A      B
I told no lies, no alibis
E           A                   E
Our little love was real for a minute

E                   A               E
Good thing I could only stay for a minute
E            A                        B
I ve never felt that way, even for a minute
       A            B
For a minute, I believed in you
A                 B
There was nothing I wouldn t do
       A                        E            B

For a minute with you I gave up everything I had

E                    A                 E
Now it s over and I feel relief for a minute
    E                      A                B
I criticize trouble and I end up being the one who s in it
A                B     A                 B
My shame grows strong, I know I ve done wrong
E                A                 E
But our little love was real for a minute
