             Ebm  Bbm  G#m  Bbm
             Ebm  Bbm  G#m  Bbm

             Ebm                     Bbm
    And the rain falls down     in sheets of blue and gray.
             G#m                     Bbm
          Where did the Sun go,    where s my summer s day?
             Ebm                     Bbm
         And everyone s in love,  oh everyone but me.
             G#m                     Bbm
             Everyone s got someplace ...they have to be.

             Ebm
        And everybody s on their own every single day
             Bbm
       They wanna tell you otherwise but don t know what to say.
             G#m                                Bbm
         And I can tell you something which I know ...
             Ebm                                Bbm
this much is true     .......................

       And everybody earns a little less than what they say
       They re all saving pennies just to last a day.
       And I can tell you something which I know
this much is true.

           Oh she lives in a world tucked inside her head
           Crying every night before she goes to bed
           And he s leaving here tomorrow, or so he says
           Living on his sorrow, but he ll forget tomorrow.

      And everybody s on their own every single day
      They wanna tell you otherwise but don t know what to say.
      And I can tell you something which I know
this much is true.

      And everybody earns a little less than what they say
      They re all saving pennies just to last a day.
      And I can tell you something which I know
             Ebm                            Bbm
 this much is true.
```

this much is true,
this much is true, ... I know
this much is true.
This much is true.
