Cruel Summer
Bananarama

Here is another 80 s song with a great synth-sounding bassline, although i prefer the rap remix that can be found on the Blue Crush soundtrack over the original. P.S. forget the Ace of Base version its a bit different. Playing it tuned down a half step is a lot easier i noticed since you can use the open A string during the fast parts. The chords were easy enough to figure out so i included them as well. I m still working on the main melody so that should up soon too. Please vote too peaceeee.

chorus:

   C#m             A               B               A

Gb|-------------------------r------|--------------------------------|
Db|-------------------------e------|--------------------------------|
Ab|5-------3-------5-------s---5--|1-0-1---3---1---3-------0------|
Eb|-------------------------t------|--------------------------------|

   1   &   2   &   3   &   4   &   1   &   2   &   3   &   4   &

note: there are a few variations of this bassline in the some of the choruses. this is the main one and the rest have only very minor changes.

Db|-------------------------e------|--------------------------------|
Ab|5-------3-------5-------s------|1-0-1---3---1---3-------0------|

   1   &   2   &   3   &   4   &   1   &   2   &   3   &   4   &
