1864

We were so young and poor

We gave our troubles to the sky

We fell into the sea

We fell under the trees

We fell in love to pass the time and oh,

the stars were everywhere

and oh,

the sunset on your hair

(2x) Cm, Bb, Eb

1865

The wind is in your eyes

The earth is shaking under you and it s so very clear that there s nobody here who knows me better than you do

and oh,

my pockets full of thread

and oh,

the animals they fled

and oh,

your footprints by the stream

and oh,

a fire in your dream
