Half In Love With Elizabeth
Mystery Jets

There doesn t seem to be any chords for this song on here so i quickly tabbed them up. They re really easy, and its a great song Enjoy :)

          F       G           Am
And he s half in love with Elizabeth
          F       G        Am
And he s half in love with you

F                    G                   Am
Some things are too painful to say out loud
            F            G                       Am
Well, they live behind a veil and see through a shroud
F                     G
Words fly through his mouth
            Am
Like paper butterflies
          F                        G            Am
Well they flutter around and put holes in your side

(Same the whole way through with the same chords)

And he s half in love with Elizabeth
And he s half in love with you

I knew that you were thinking of him last night
 Cos I saw the blood seep down to your toes Turn away if you must
But how can you put your trust
In a man who always sleeps in his clothes?

And he s half in love with Elizabeth
And he s half in love with you

And he s half in love with Elizabeth
And he s half in love with you

You re the sweet scent on an envelope
Or the photo in its pass
But if you pin your hopes to his back my dear
I m afraid the bubble will burst
I m afraid that the bubble just might burst

The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst
The bubble will burst

And he s half in love with Elizabeth
And he s half in love with you

And he s half in love with Elizabeth
And he s half in love with you
