Life Aint So Shitty
Blind Melon

Intro: Bm barre G barre Bm barre G barre A barre

Verse 1:

```
                        Bm              G
        Life ain t so shitty,  there s a lot that you can be Bm             G
 A
        And ain t it a pity,   it s alright to smile back at me, and if we both go there,
                                                          G
        We count our problems the we might not necissarly,   come in contact with, hey

         wake up, do you know where I m coming from?
```

Play through the intro twice except go from the last A back to G then back to A quickly

Verse 2:

```
                            Bm                        G
        And life ain t so shitty,           there s a lot that you can be Bm                            G
             A
        And ain t it a pity,   it s alright to smile back at me, and if we both
go there,
                                                                  G
        We ll count or problems that I might not necissarly, come in contact, if you don t

        know where I m coming from
```

Outro:

```
        Bm      G       Bm      G       A       G       A
```

Spanish Indy (quick strumming)

```
      Bm      G     A  G    Bm    G   A  G
      Bm      G     A  G    Bm
```

Be sure to listen to the song to get the rhythm on