Watch out for the switch to D instead of Dmaj7 near the end.
At times the Dmaj7 and G share a bar between them e.g Search for the gold

```
Dmaj7         G
Sea shell and stone
E                                            A
Surf rushes forward to feel the shingle with fingers of foam
Dmaj7          G
Search for the gold
E                                            A
Over the landscape the mouth of a lifeline unfolds
Dmaj7                G
Smooth and round and brown
E                                            A
See how the sunshine creeps over thistle and down
Dmaj7                                   G
Hillock and hump hummock and clump and mound
```

```
I feel a lump see a bump hear a bold bulbous sound
Dmaj7                                        G
Hollow and valley and shadow and dimple and hill
Dmaj7                                            G
Glisten and glimmer and shimmer and sparkle and still Dmaj7                                      G  A
Sunlight is warming the land before your eyes...
        D                  G
And the sunrise is on your side
        D                   G  A  D
And the sunshine is on your thighs...
Dmaj7                  G
Lady of stone you are alone
Dmaj7                  G
Lady of stone you are alone
