Protect And Survive
Runrig

F C
The red hot sun burns up the hill

Dm C
The winter s bride, the summer s king

Dm Bb
I tramp these acres and I feel

Gm C
Once upon a time

F C
And then it seemed that everything

Dm C
You saw and touched and felt was real

Dm Bb
You turned the tap and you turned the wheel

Gm C
Breathing free

Now you search the open evening sky
Trace the memory in your eyes
For the prophet s hard rain and the deluge
Lie in tears around your door
Once there were trees and livestock here
A mother s love, the warnings clear
But you chose to turn away from fear
Breathing free

Now there s a faceless cross on a distant hill
A wasted voice, a silent scream
Where the lovers love and the dreamers dream
You stand and dream alone
You took your sacrifice to the gods of war
Traded your children s lives for a mess of gold
And you beat your ploughshares into swords
Breathing free

C F
Once in a lifetime

```
    Bb
You live and love

   F
Once in a lifetime

    C
You die

   F
Once in a moment

    Bb
The sun goes down
