C                     Am
Many years ago, in a house on Eden road
        C            Am
lived a girl you may know...oh

G                              Am
We were young but we had such love
G                Am
too few can understand
G
A love that was more than love
                Am
me and my Sarah Anne

    C                             Am
The only wish she d keep, was to love and be loved by me
       C                     Am
laying naked by the sea...oh, you should ve seen

[chorus]
[INTRO]

   C                                Am
We loved so f*c*i*g much, that the angels from above
       C                    Am
became envious of us...and, thus
C                                Am
Micahel-the archangel, with his mighty arm and bow
        C                        Am
shot an arrow through her heart, leaving me alone
