Return To Oz
Scissor Sisters

(intro) Dm

Dm
Once there was a man
F C A
who had a little too much time on his hands
Bb
he never stopped to think that he was getting older.
Dm
When his night came to an end
C# G#
He tried to grasp for his last friend and pretend
C Bb
That he could wish himself health on a four leaf clover

C#
He said is this the return to Oz?
F# A C#
The grass is dead, the gold is brown and the sky has claws

There s a wind up man walking round and round
F# A C#
What once was Emerald City is now a crystal town

Dm
Its three o clock in the morning
F C A
You get a phone call from the queen with a hundred heads
Bb
She says that they re all dead
Dm
She tried the last one on

It couldn t speak, fell off
C#
And now she just wanders the halls
G# C Bb
Thinking nothing, thinking nothing at all

C#
He said is this the return to Oz?
F# A C#
The grass is dead, the gold is brown and the sky has claws

There s a wind up man walking round and round
F# A C#
What once was Emerald City is now a crystal town

(solo) C# C B G#
C# C B A G# C#

Dm
The wheelies are cutting pavement
F C
and the Skeksis at the rave meant A to hide deep inside
Bb
their sunken faces
Dm
and their wild, rolling eyes
C#
But their callous words reveal
G#
That they can no longer feel
C
Love or sex appeal
Bb
The patchwork girl has come to cinch the deal

C# F#
To return to Oz we ve fled the world
A C#
With smiles and clenching jaws

Please help me friend from coming down
F# A C#
I ve lost my place now and it cant be found

Is this the return to Oz?
F# A C#
The grass is dead, the gold is brown and the sky has claws

There s a wind up man walking round and round
F# A C#
What once was Emerald City is now a crystal town

(Dm C# G# C Bb) (4x)
