Keep Awake by 100 Monkeys

This is an easy, fun, repetitive song that will be stuck in your head for days. Great for sing alongs and campfires. Enjoy!

I tabbed this by watching a video of them playing it live, so I know it is for sure correct.

Intro (x2):

E, C#m, A, B

Chorus:

E            C#m                    A                    B                    E
I will kill you in your sleep, so you d better try, try and keep awake

C#m                    A                    B                    E
I will kill you in your sleep, so you d better try, try and keep awake

C#m                    A                    B                    E
I will kill you in your sleep, so you d better try, try and keep awake

C#m                    A                    B                    E
I will kill you in your sleep, so you d better try, try and keep awake

Verse:

E
Keep your left eye open and your right toe twitchin

B
Cause I m in the kitchen with a knife that s itchin

A    B
For your red blood, on those white sheets

E
So keep your left eye open and your right toe twitchin

B
Cause I m in the kitchen with a knife that s itchin

A    B
For your red blood, on those white sheets
