Fill the world

Oh, Julia dreams while she s typing away
Jackie kills time while the company pays
Tracy still hears 808 ringing in her brain
Jane slaps paints on the walls of her home
Lydia sings when she thinks she s alone
Jean gets drunk and wonders home,
Through the car parks that need her change

Yeah, lonely girls, lonely girls fill the world

But never show the pain

Oh sometimes our lives are not what they seem Sometimes things aren t like they are in lifestyle magazines
We see what we want to see
In this miracle of clay

Well lonely girls, lonely girls fill the world
