I ve been searching
C#
I ve been searching

C#                                  Ebm
I ve been searching for a gold mine
               F#                       C#
To open up the skies and make me feel alive
                                    Ebm    F#
I ve been searching for a gold mine

Well, I got trouble sleeping in
                              Ebm        F#
Wanna feel the day begin and change my mood
           C#
It s been feeling kinda dull
And I m waiting for a call
    Ebm    F#
To answer to

   Bbm                  C#                     F#
I have to be honest, I wouldn t know what s true
              G#7
So won t you take me up with you cause

C#                                  Ebm
I ve been searching for a gold mine
               F#                       C#
To open up the skies and make me feel alive
                                    Ebm    F#
I ve been searching for a gold mine

Gold mine

C#
Well, I ve been traveling high and low
                          Ebm        F#
Searching for that glow before it strays
C#
I only got one life to give
Only have so long to live
         Ebm        F#
I can t throw this away
