From The Edge of The Deep Green Sea
The Cure

Intro: E-D-E-D-E-D... Em D* G Am [D 2 0 0 2 3 0 (Dsus2/F#)]

Em            D*         G         Am
every time we do this, I fall for her
wave after wave after wave it s all for her Em                  D*                    G i know this can t be wrong i say (and i ll lie to keep her happy) Am                      Em                 D* as long as i know that you know that today i belong G  Am
right here with you, right here with you...

and so we watch the sun come up from the edge of the deep green sea and she listens like her head s on fire, like she wants to believe in me so i try put your hands in the sky surrender
remember
we ll be here forever and we ll never say goodbye...

i ve never been so colourfully-see-through-head before i ve never been so wonderfully-me-you-want-some-more and all i want is to keep it like this you and me alone, a secret kiss and don t go home, don t go away don t let this end, please stay not just for today

never never never never never let me go she says hold me like this for a hundred thousand million days but suddenly she slows and looks down at my breaking face why do you cry? what did i say?
but it s just rain i smile brushing my tears away...

Bm                  C
i wish i could just stop
D                   Em
i know another moment will break my heart
Bm              C
too many tears, too many times
D               Em
too many years i ve cried over you

how much more can we use it up?
drink it dry? take this drug?
looking for something forever gone
but something we will always want?

why why why are you letting me go? she says i feel you pulling back, i feel you changing shape... and just as i m breaking free she hangs herself in front of me slips her dress like a flag to the floor and hands in the sky surrenders it all...

i wish i could just stop
i know another moment will break my heart
too many tears
too many times
too many years i ve cried for you it s always the same
wake up in the rain
head in pain
hung in shame
a different name
same old game
love in vain
and miles and miles and miles and miles and miles away from home again...
