Change Of Heart
Bruce Dickinson

```
Bm     G     Bm            A
Here I sit alone at the window
Em              G           Bm           F#
The rain falls down on the glass in the cold
Bm      G              Bm            A
All my life I ve been waiting for a moment
Em             G
It never came, maybe never will
Bm                     F#
Ah, sometimes I don t know

G
Those days are gone
Bm                        A    Bm
Now I hide where I just can t say
           G
I m still there, catching your tears
             Em         A        F# A
Before they fall to the ground

Bm                    G
You, you re walking away
             Bm
You couldn t stay
           D         A
You need a change of heart
Bm                    G
You, you re walking away
             Bm
You couldn t stay
           D         A
You need a change of heart

Bm        G        Bm            A
Trees are bare, the earth, it is hard
Em           G            Bm         F#
I wait for a winter, soft winter and snow

G
Those days are gone
Bm                        A    Bm
Now I hide where I just can t say
           G
I m still there, catching your tears
             Em         A        F# A
Before they fall to the ground

Bm                    G
You, you re walking away
             Bm
You couldn t stay
           D         A
You need a change of heart
Bm                    G
You, you re walking away
             Bm
You couldn t stay
           D         A
You need a change of heart

G           Bm
And I know, wherever you go
A               Bm
I ll be around, yeah
        G
I ll be there, catching your tears
            Em          A
Before they fall to the ground

[Solo]

G
Those days are gone
Bm                       A    Bm
Now I hide where I just can t say
           G
I m still there, watching your tears
             Em         A        F# A
As they fall to the ground

Bm                    G
You, you re walking away
             Bm
You couldn t stay
           D         A
You need a change of heart
Bm                    G
You, you re walking away
             Bm
You couldn t stay
           D         A
You need a change of heart

[Fade out]
