Death Of Me
City and Colour

this is my first tab so please rate it and tell me how I did. I found the other tab on this site wasn t quite right, so here is the version I play.

Standard Tuning

Chords used:
Em:022000
G: 320033
C/G:332010
Gm:554030

Intro:

Em, G, C/G, Gm (x2)

[Verse]

  Em                  G             C/G
Do I have nothing good left to say
                            Gm                        Em
Do I need whiskey to start fueling my complaints
                      G                     C/G
People love to drink their troubles away
                               Gm
Sometimes I feel that Iâ€™d be better off that way

[Chorus]

Em                          G                C/G
Cause maybe then I could sleep at night
                          Gm                     Em
I wouldnâ€™t lie awake until the morning light
                             G                C/G
This is something that Iâ€™ll never control
                                 Gm
My nerves will be the death of me I know
Em   G
     I know
C/G   Gm
      I know

[Verse]

Em G C/G
So hereâ€™s to living life miserable
Gm Em
And hereâ€™s to all the lonely stories that Iâ€™ve told
G C/G
Maybe drinking wine would validate my sorrow
Gm
Every man needs a muse and mine could be the bottle

[Chorus]

Em G C/G
Maybe then I could sleep at night
Gm Em
I wouldnâ€™t lie awake until the morning light
G C/G
This is something that Iâ€™ll never control
Gm
My nerves will be the death of me I know

[Bridge]

C/G Gm Em
Finally I could hope for a better day
C/G Gm Em
No longer holding on to all the things that cloud my mind
C/G Gm Em
Maybe then the weight of the world wouldnâ€™t seem so heavy
C/G (stop) Gm (stop) Em
But then again Iâ€™ll probably always feel this way

[Chorus]

G C/G
At least I know Iâ€™ll never sleep at night
Gm Em
Iâ€™ll always lie awake until the morning light
G C/G
This is something that Iâ€™ll never control
Gm Em
My nerves will be the death of me
G C/G
My nerves will be the death of me
Gm (stop)
My nerves will be the death of me
C/G Gm Em (slow Strum)
I know
