Torn And Frayed
The Rolling Stones

Intro: Eb Bb F Eb

 Bb   G#                    Eb
Hey let him follow you down,
           Bb    F                Eb
Way underground wind and he s bound.
Bb     G#              Eb
Bound to follow you down,
        Bb    F                    Eb
Just a dead beat right off the street.
Bb     G#               Eb
Bound to follow you down.
           Bb              G#        Eb
Well the ballrooms and smelly bordellos
         Bb            G#            Eb
And dressing rooms filled with parasites.
      Bb        G#             Eb
On stage the band has got problems,
           Bb        Eb              Bb
They re a bag of nerves on first nights.
Eb             Bb      F         Eb
He ain t tied down to no home town,
Bb               G#               Eb
Yeah, and he thought he was wreckless.
             Bb     F                 Eb
You think he s bad, he thinks you re mad,
Bb               G#                    Eb
Yeah, and the guitar player gets restless.
          Bb      G#          Eb
And his coat is torn and frayed,
      Bb           G#     Eb
It s seen much better days.
      Bb           G#           Eb
Just as long as the guitar plays
         Bb          Eb     Bb
Let it steal your heart away,
         Bb          Eb     Bb   Bb Eb Bb Eb Bb F Eb Bb G# Eb Bb F Eb Bb G# Eb
Let it steal your heart away.
Eb          Bb       F              Eb
Joe s got a cough, sounds kind a rough,
Bb               G#            Eb
Yeah, and the codeine to fix it.
             Bb      F            Eb
Doctor prescribes, drug store supplies,
Bb       G#                  Eb
Who s gonna help him to kick it
```

```
           Bb      G#          Eb
Well his coat is torn and frayed,
      Bb          G#      Eb
It`s seen much better days.
          Bb          G#       Eb
Just as long as the guitar plays
        Bb           Eb    Bb
Let it steal your heart away,
       Bb            Eb    Bb    Eb Bb F Eb
Let it steal your heart away.
           Bb        G#         Eb        Bb G# Eb
Well this coat is torn and frayed (4x)
