We Expect To Fail
Buddah Crush

We expect to fail by Buddah Crush. Transcribed by Willie Lockhart.

I ve just seen this band live and they were st hot!
so if you get a chance, check em out.

We expect to fail, on the Glitter is everywhere E.P.
(transcribed, 19/03/00)

```
Chorus,   G#                Eb       F              C#
        Believe me when I say we expect to fail ah ha, x2
            F               C#        F              C#
        we expect to fail ah ha, we expect to fail ah ha

Verse 1 A
        This is the one, you re here, a chance to make amends,
                                                      C#
        for what you call your piggy weakness, Now only you put your Eb face on.....

Verse 2 A
        And if I ever meet you here sometime again,
                                              C#              Eb
        Won t you be glad you left school and shed your baby heads?

                                (Chorus)

Verse 3 (same chords)
        You wrote the quote, The book, The note condemned to note, Tragic vessel, Sensible shoes, Take advice from those who went before.

Verse 4
        And if I ever meet you here sometimes again, My lover friend
        Won t you be glad you left school and shed you re baby heads?

                                (Chorus)
```

P.S This is my first transcription so go easy on me. Any comments e-mail me @ alockhart@beep.com -cheers!