Verse 1

```
                            Am7
Baby dry your weeping eyes
         D
Just let me say
                            G                           Em7
You ve been carrying the weight of the world, like a true queen
               /D       Am7                D
Maybe I m not what you want, but I m what you need
                         G                      Em7
You ve been traveling alone for so long, let me be there
```

Pre-Chorus

```
                   /D   Bbmaj7                      Ebmaj7
So I can hold you in my arms, keep you safe from harm

     /D Am7                              D    Em7

You re the only one who knows just how to save me
                                            D?
You re the anchor when my world is going crazy
```

Verse 2 (Same Chords)
