Bm                 D7           G
   You ve got to get up every morning
        Em7
with a smile on your face
     D             Bm                    E7     (A7, optional)
And show the world all the love in your heart
       G
Then people gonna treat you better
              D
You re gonna find, yes, you will
Dâ—¦7                            D
That you re beautiful as you feel

[Verse 1]

  Bm           Bm/A           G                G/F#
Waiting at the station with a workday wind a-blowing
          Em                             F#7
I ve got nothing to do but watch the passers-by
   Bm             Bm/A         G            G/F#
Mirrored in their faces I see frustration growing
          Em           G             F#7
And they don t see it showing, why do I?

[Chorus]

Bm                 D7           G
   You ve got to get up every morning
        Em7
with a smile on your face
     D             Bm                    E7     (A7, optional)
And show the world all the love in your heart
       G
Then people gonna treat you better
              D
You re gonna find, yes, you will
Dâ—¦7                            D
That you re beautiful as you feel

[Verse 2]

   Bm              Bm/A              G            G/F#
     I have often asked myself the reason for sadness
     Em                              F#7
In a world where tears are just a lullaby
Bm             Bm/A          G                G/F#
If there s any answer, maybe love can end the madness
      Em           G            F#7
Maybe not, oh, but we can only try

[Chorus]

Bm                D7           G
   You ve got to get up every morning
        Em7
with a smile on your face
     D             Bm                    E7     (A7, optional)
And show the world all the love in your heart
       G
Then people gonna treat you better
              D
You re gonna find, yes, you will
Dâ—¦7                            D
That you re beautiful as you feel
