Intro: C# F# C# G#

```
       C#
Where 69 meets 40,

There s a single stop light town,
     F#
And back when I was really young,
 Bbm                      G#
Part of that burned down,
    C#
On any given Friday night,

We d drive a hundred miles,
              F#
Between the Sonic and the Grocery Store,
  Bbm                   G#
Laughin  all the while,
         Bbm             G#
With as many friends as I could pack,
 F#
In my daddy s Ford,
       Bbm   G#     F#             C#
But I ain t in Checotah anymore.

     C#
My hotel in Manhattan,
             F#
Holds more people than our town,
         C#
And what I just paid for dinner,
                   G#
Would be a down payment on a house,
                Bbm              G#
I d rather be tippin  cows in Tulsa,
              F#
Then hailing cabs here in New York,
       Bbm   G#     F#             C#
But I ain t in Checotah anymore.
```

Chorus:

```
                F#
I m in a world so wide,
                   C#
It makes me feel small sometimes,
           Bbm             G#
I miss the big blue skies,
          F#
The Oklahoma kind.

       C#
In a world of long red carpets,
             F#
The bright lights of Hollywood,
            C#
All the paparazzi flashin
            G#
Can make a girl feel pretty good,
               Bbm         G#
You can get anything you want here,
  F#
Except a Wal-Mart store,
       Bbm   G#     F#             C#
But I ain t in Checotah anymore.
```

Chorus:

```
                F#
I m in a world so wide,
                   C#
It makes me feel small sometimes,
           Bbm             G#
I miss the big blue skies,
          F#
The Oklahoma kind.

             G#
Where the Wildcats beat the Ironheads,

Old Settler s day and the Okrafest,

After prom down at the bowling lanes,

Catchin  crappy fish in Eufaula lake,
   Bbm   G#     F#             F#sus4
I ain t in Checotah anymore.

F# C# F#sus4 F#   G#
         Oh Yeah...
```

Chorus:

```
                F#
I m in a world so wide,
                   C#
It makes me feel small sometimes,
           Bbm             G#
I miss the big blue skies,
          F#
The Oklahoma kind,
       Bbm   G#     F#
But I ain t in Checotah,
      Bbm   G#     F#
No I ain t in Checotah,
              Bbm          G#   F#
Oh, there s nothing like Oklahoma.

       C#
Where 69 meets 40,

There s a single stoplight town
