Crucify My Love
X Japan

Title : Crucify My Love
Artist : X-Japan
Album : Dahlia (Track 6)

Please note that I m actually a piano player mostly,
and that these chords are taken directly from the Dahlia songbook.

Intro:
(G#)///////(Bb)/(Cm)////(Fm)///(Fm6)/////
(each / is representatitve of one beat n the piece is in 4/4)

Chords fade out until the first word is sung,
then they come in like this:

     G#                Bb7
Crucify my love
       Cm
If my love is blind
     G#               Bb7
Crucify my love
       Cm
If it sets me free
       G#          Bb7
Never know Never trust
       Eb       Bb/D    C
That love should see a color
 Bb7 G#               Bb7
Crucify my love
            Cm
If it should be that way

Second verse is the same:

Swing the heartache
Feel it inside out
When the wind cries
I ll say goodbye
Tried to learn Tried to find
To reach out for eternity
Where s the answers
Is this forever?

Quick piano solo here:
(G#)//(Bb7)//(Cm)////(G#)//(Bb)//(G/A)

bridge:

                        Cm7             F/G
        Like a river flowing to the sea
                         Bb
        You ll be miles away
          Bb/G#    G/A
        And I will know
                     Cm  Cm/Bb G#7
        I know I can deal with the pain
    F7/G#    Bb    G7
        No reason to cry

(same as the first verse)

        Crucify my love
        If my love is blind
        Crucify my love
        If it sets me free
        Never know Never trust
        That love should see a color
        Crucify my love
        If it should be that way

Big solo here...

 (C)////(G#)//(Bb)//(Cm)////(G#)//(F/G)//
 (Bb)////(G/A)////(G#)////(G)////
        (G#)////(Cm)////(G7)//(Cm)//(Eb)//(D7)//

Play the bridge with these words:

        Till the loneliness shadows the sky
        I ll be sailing down
        And I will know
        I know I can clear clouds away
        Oh is it a crime to love

Then this:

        Swing the heartache
        Feel it inside out
        When the wind cries
        I ll say goodbye
        Tried to learn Tried to find
        To reach out for eternity
        Where  s the answer
        Is this forever
```

Straight into:

        If my love is blind
        Crucify my love

If it sets me free
Never know Never trust
That love should see a color
Crucify my love
If it should be that way.

the ending is just the Bm7 let ring on til the piano fades out.

Okay, that was probably really confusing.
Hope it works for you, if not, gimme a yell on
