[Verse]

G/B A D G
The man in 119 takes his tea all alone.
D G D G
Mornings we all rise, to wireless Verdi cries.

I m hearing opera through the door.

The souls of men and women,
D G impassioned all.

Their voices climb and fall;

battle trumpets call.

I fill the bath and climb inside,
singing

[Chorus]

D G/B A la la la la la la D G/B A la la la la la la

[Verse]

G/B A
He will not touch their pastry
D G
but every day they bring him more.
D G
Gold from the breakfast tray,
D G
I steal them all away
D G A
and then go eat them on the shore.

I draw a jackal-headed woman in the sand
D G
sing of a lover's fate

Ho-oh-ololidays must end, as you know.

All is memory,

taken home with me:

the opera, the stolen tea,
D G
the sand drawing, the virgin sea, all
years ago.
