Verse:
```
Am                              G                 F#m
When she sleeps, there is a fever dream, yeah

                  Am                              G                  F#m
It brings a night terror to harm this fragile bird

                 Am                              G                 F#m
She speaks in tongues, her words they come undone, yeah

                  Am                              G                  F#m
And with a wayward mind she struggles through the night
```

Chorus:
```
G                  Am    F
All...     That I can do...
G                        Am         F
Is hope...     She makes it through...

Thats it. Solo is the same as the verse chords, song ends on Am
