C                   F             G
When I was young my father said,  Son, I have something to
C say.
                         F            G              C
And what he told me I ll never forget until my dying day.
   G7
he said...
 C              F                 G                 C
 Son, you are a bachelor boy, and that s the way to stay.
                 F            G                C
Son, you ll be a bachelor boy until your dying day.

C                    F                   G
When I was sixteen I fell in love with a girl as sweet as
can be.
                 F                  G             C
But I remembered just in time, what daddy said to me. He said...

(refrão)
C                 F                    G
As time goes by I probably will meet a girl and fall in love.
                              F
Then I ll get married, have a wife and a child,
    G                    C      G7        C
and they ll be my turtle doves. But until then...
          F             G                   C
I ll be a bachelor boy, that s the way I ll stay,
              F             G              C
happy to be a bachelor boy, until my dying day, Yeah...
C         F             G                   C
I ll be a bachelor boy, that s the way I ll stay.
              F             G              C      C F C F C Bb C
Happy to be a bachelor boy, until my dying da...y.
