Cm                                          Bb
I am just an aging drummer-boy, and in the wars I used to play
         G#                                Cm
And I ve called a tune to many a torture session.
Cm                                           Bb
Now they say I am a war criminal, and I m a-fading away.
G#
Father, please hear my confession.

       F                      C
I have legalized robbery and called it belief
       F                          C
I have run with the money, I have hid like a thief
       F                        C
I have rewritten history with my armies and my crooks
C        Bb         Gm         C
Invented memories,      I did burn all the books
          Cm                                  Bb              Dm
And I can still hear his laughter, and I can still hear his song
Dmsus2                 Dm                 C         Bb   C   Bb
         The man s too big, the man s too strong

Bb  Bbm  F  Fm etc.
