When I was young my father said,  Son, I have something to C# say.
                         F#            G#              C#
And what he told me I ll never forget until my dying day.
   G#7
he said...
 C#              F#                 G#                 C#
 Son, you are a bachelor boy, and that s the way to stay.
                 F#            G#                C#

When I was sixteen I fell in love with a girl as sweet as C#
can be.
                 F#                   G#             C#
But I remembered just in time, what daddy said to me. He said...

(refrão)
C#                 F#                    G#
As time goes by I probably will meet a girl and fall in
C#
love.
                                F#
Then I ll get married, have a wife and a child,
    G#                    C#      G#7        C#
and they ll be my turtle doves. But until then...
          F#             G#                   C#
I ll be a bachelor boy, that s the way I ll stay,
               F#             G#              C#
happy to be a bachelor boy, until my dying day, Yeah...
C#         F#             G#                   C#
I ll be a bachelor boy, that s the way I ll stay.
               F#             G#              C#      C# F# C# F# C# B C#
