After Halloween
Fairport Convention

Intro: C Am

Verse
C Am
Red and gold and Halloween have passed us by
C Am Gm
The charcoal branches lean against the rosy sky
A7 Ab G C
You are so far away and I could touch you if I may
Am D G
But don t you worry now, I m only dreaming anyway

Verse
C Am
You may be lonely, you may be just on your own
C Am Gm
It could be anywhere, some place that I have known
A7 Ab G
But who am I and do we really live these days at all
C Am D G Bm
And are they simply feelings we have learnt and do recall

Bridge
Am Cm
Oh, the sea has made me cry
Bm Am D
But I love her too, so maybe I love you

Verse
C Am
Tears are only made of salt and water
C Am Gm
And across the waves, the sound of laughter
A7 Ab G
October, it has gone and left me with a song
C Am D G
That I will sing to you, although this moment may be wrong

Instrumental
C Am C Am
Gm A7 Ab G C Am D G

Bridge
Bm Am Cm
Could it be the sea s as real as you and I?
Bm C
I often wonder why I always have to say

```
         Am      D   G
I m only dreaming anyway
```

Bridge

Bm                              Am               Cm
Could it be the sea s as real as you and I?
        Bm           C
I often wonder why I always have to say
         Am      D   G     Am  D7
I m only dreaming anyway
```
