F#m/D# F#m/B F#m

```
       E             D    E
These mist covered moun_tains
                  A  Asus4  A
Are a home now for me,
        A/A#         F#m   C#m
But my home is the low_lands
                 D   Esus4
And always will be.

      E            F#m    C#m
Some day you ll return__ to___
                       D     Bm  Esus4
Your valleys and your farms,
           E         F#m          D           Esus4
And you ll no longer burn to be bro_thers in arms.__

```
               E            D     E
Through these fields of destruc_tion,__
                     A  Asus4  A
Baptisms of fire.____
       A/A#            F#m     C#m
I ve witnessed your suf__fering
                        D    Esus4
As the battle raged higher.

      E                 F#m      C#m
And though they did hurt me so bad___
                  D    Bm  Esus4
In the fear and alarm,
     E       F#m            D            Esus4
You did not de_sert me my bro_thers in arms.__
```

```
             E              F#m  A  E
There s so ma_ny different worlds,
     A              D    Esus4
```

So ma_ny different suns,
```
    E                F#m   A  E
And we have just one world,
        A                  D
But we live in different ones.

```
          E               D   E
Now the sun s gone to hell__ and
                   A  Asus4  A
The moon s riding high.
       A/A#             F#m  C#m
Let me bid you farewell,
                       D   Esus4
Every man has to die.___

            E           F#m     C#m
But it s written in the star___ light
                          D  Bm  Esus4
And every line in your palm,
        E          F#m           D              Esus4  E
We re fools to make war on our bro_thers in arms.___
