Cm                        Adim7
Darkness of the night has gone
  Fm                        Cm
A blackbird sings a song at dawn
Eb
Crystal drops of morning dew
    G#
are covering all the grass
    G#m                        Cm
The landscape wears its morningdress

The foliage of the wood shines bright
As green as emerald s light
Over the fields vibrating air causes a faintly glance
Some cows are grazing near a fence

While lowering clouds accumalate
Midges dancing above the lake
The haymakers, they go away hiding for a storm
A flash of lightening struck

Cm        Adim7
Storm and thunder
Fm       Cm
Beat the nature
Eb               G#
Down gushes the rain
    G#m              Cm
and wind cracks the trees
