Elton John

INTRO
C# F7 | Bbm F#

VERSE
```
             C#                  G#7
You had your grand illusion and wrestled with your fate
    Ebm/Ab                           F7
The winter of your discontent came twenty years too late
          Bbm              Bbm/Bb      Eb/A                 F#6
If it was love and I was there I ve forgotten where it lives
        C#            G#            F#
We both stepped off a frozen rock onto a burning bridge
```

    C#                         G#7
You came like an invasion all bells and whistles blowing
Ebm/Ab                       F7
Reaping the rewards of the fable you d been sowing
  Bbm                 Bbm/Bb       Eb/A                F#6
I saw you cross the landing and descending marble stairs
     C#                  G#                     F#
Like Caesar crossed the Rubicon you seemed to walk on air

    C#                  F7
And yea I ve seen your movie
      Bbm               Bbm/Bb
And I read it in your book
    F#                    C#
The truth just flew off every page
     F7
Your songs have all the hooks
       Bbm            Bbm/Bb
You re seven wonders rolled in one
    Gm7/b5           F#6
You shifted gear to cruise
       C#             F  F#
Oh you came to town in headlines
          G#9            C#
And eight hundred dollar shoes

```
Oh the bellboys are crying and moneys changing hands
     Ebm/Ab                                   F7
Your cloak and dagger legacy s gone home to no man s land
    Bbm                 Bbm/Bb           Eb/A              F#6
The marquee lights are flickering your poster s fading fast
     C#              G#              F#6
Your being here just melts away like ice cubes in a glass

    C#                  F7
And yea I ve seen your movie
      Bbm               Bbm/Bb
And I read it in your book
    F#                    C#
The truth just flew off every page

Your songs have all the hooks
       Bbm             Bbm/Bb
You re seven wonders rolled in one

And eight hundred dollar shoes
       C#            F   F#
