Rexs Blues
Jay Farrar

Kelly Willis Rex s Blues written by Townes Van Zandt
Jay Farrar

E                  A        E
Ride the blue wind high and free
E                   A       E
It ll lead you down through misery
E              A            E
Leave you low, come time to go
          A              E
Alone and low as low can be

E                     A      E
If I had a nickel I d find a game
E                     A       E
If I won a dollar I d make it rain
E                         A        E
If it rained an ocean I d drink it dry
           A            E
And lay me down dissatisfied

E                 A          E
Legs to walk and thoughts to fly
                  A       E
Eyes to laugh and lips to cry
                     A    E
A restless tongue to classify
E            A                E
All born to grow and grown to die

SOLO

E                 A       E
So tell my baby I said so long
E                A      E
tell my mother I did no wrong
E                  A         E
Tell my brother to watch his own
            A                   E
And tell my friends to mourn me none

E                    A       E
I m chained upon the face of time
E               A       E

Feelin full of foolish rhyme
E A E
There ain t no dark till something shines
A E
I m bound to leave this dark behind

E A E
Ride the blue wind high and free
E A
It ll lead you down through misery
E A E
Leave you low, come time to go
A E
Alone and low as low can be
