E C#m

E
When you hit the bottom
C#m
When you re left with nothing
A B
When you can t tell the difference, yeah
You still won t know what it s like

When you think you re damaged
C#m
When it s overwhelming
A B
When you can t get past it, yeah
You still won t know what it s like
What it s like

E C#m
You haven t seen the ghosts that I ve seen
E C#m
You haven t lived enough to know what it means
A B
To feel the pain in love turned cold
A B
To taste the end before it s over

E C#m (2x)

When your body s frozen
C#m E C#m
And you can trust no one
When you think you re lonely, yeah
B C#m B A
You still won t know what it s like

```
E                            C#m
When you feel like nothing
                 E         C#m
You just can t take it
A                                B
When your heart is breaking,yeah
                                C#m
You still won t know what it s like
B               A
What it s like

E                                      C#m
You haven t seen the ghosts that I ve seen
                    E                     C#m
You haven t lived enough to know what it means
A                                B
To feel the pain in love turned cold
A                            B
To taste the end before it s over

E                            C#m
You don t know the person suffering
E                                    C#m
So before you start ??? ??? for sympathies
A                                B
Take a look at what s left of me
Take a look at what s left of me, left of me

C#m                          B?
Every day I fight ??? ??? ??? ???
C#m                                   B?
And every time I think you ve ??? ??? ???
B
No I m not

E                                      C#m
You haven t seen the ghosts that I ve seen
                    E                     C#m
You haven t lived enough to know what it means
A                                B
To feel the pain in love turned cold
A                            B
To taste the end before it s over

E                            C#m
You don t know the person suffering
                     E                C#m
So before you start ??? ??? for sympathies
Take a look at what s left of me
Take a look at what s left of me, left of me (2X)
