Love And Marriage
Frank Sinatra

```
      G                              D
    Love and marriage, love and marriage
G                                 C
    go together like a horse and carriage.
       G                    B7 Em         C      G
A              D
    This I tell you brother, you can t have one without the      other.

      G                              D
    Love and marriage, love and marriage,
G                                     C
    it s an institute you can t disparage.
       G                 B7 Em         C         G                D   G
    Ask the local gentry and they will say it s element ry.

     D#                                                Bb       D#
    Try, try, try to separate them, it s an illusion.
    D#                                                  D        D7
    Try, try, try, and you will only come         to this conclusion :

     G                              D
    Love and marriage, love and marriage
G                                 C
    go together like a horse and carriage.
      G                        B7 Em
    Dad was told by mother,
             C              G            C                G
    you can t have one, you can t have none,
             C              G                       A D7 G
    you can t have one  without the other.
