Live Alone
Franz Ferdinand

```
   F#m                Bm
    I wanna live alone

            D                                                          Bm
because the greatest love is always ruined by the bickering the argument of living

              F#m                        Bm               D
I wanna live alone i could be happy on my own for the rest of my life

         Bm                   D
with the vaguest of feeling ah
```

Chorus

    F#m             E                                        Bm
Wherever you are, whoever is there you know that i ll be here

                      A
I ll be here wishing i could be there
```

SYNTH SOLO

Am F#m Bm

                  F#m                       Bm
So im gonna live alone im not saying that our love is the greatest

                           D
But im in love with you i wanna stay in love with you

F#m                        Bm               D
I wanna live alone i could be happy on my own for the rest of my life

         D                   Bm
with the vaguest of feeling ah
```

Chorus

A                                          A#
New york city gonna get a taxi theres a magic driver, a decent man

G                                     A
I could imagine, having a drink with that guy
```

        F#m          Bm               D               Bm             D
He s allright, hes allright, he s allright, he s allright hes allright
```

Chorus
