Acordesweb.com

Withou You
George Baker Selection

```
Dm         G                C           F       Dm
Sleep soft my little child, sleep in my arms.
                 G               A7          Dm
Dream your sweet dreams tonight, so soft and warm.
            G            C           D7      Dm
There were so many days, I left you behind.
             G                 A7             D
Fortune and fame I lost, but this is what I found.
                D                    G       A
There s no harmony, in my melody without you baby.
A                                                D
I am just a star, with an empty heart without you baby.
D                                                     G
All the songs I sing, they don t mean a thing without your smile.
                D                           A              D
I give it all away, cause I can t live one day without you baby.
                D                    G       A
There s no harmony, in my melody without you baby.
A                                                D
I am just a star, with an empty heart without you baby.
D                                                     G
All the songs I sing, they don t mean a thing without your smile.
                D                           A              D     E
I give it all away, cause I can t live one day without you baby.
E                                     A      B
La la la la la, la la la la la without you baby.
                                             E
La la la la la, la la la la la without you baby.
                                                            A
All the songs I sing, they don t mean a thing without your smile.
                E                           B              E    A
I give it all away, cause I can t live one day without you baby.
                E                           B              E
I give it all away, cause I can t live one day Without you baby.
```