G C Em C

[Verse 1]
G C
There s a yardsale down the road
Em C
I ll borrow money from my old man
G C
And if they ve got a nice guitar
Em C
Then we can go and start our band
G C
And we ll play every song
Em C
That Hank ever wrote in his life
G
And we ll sing our hymn
C
Till the town joins in
Em C
That s every man and his wife
G
And we ll sing

[Chorus]
G C
This is the end of the show
Em C
Thank you all for tuning in
G C
This is the end of the road
Em C
Well thank you Jezebel for being, being my friend

G C Em C
G C Em C

[Verse 2]
G C
There s a small house down the road

Em C
That s where I go to see my friends
G C
And just because you re not there now
Em C
Doesn t mean we won t see you in the end

G C Em C

G C
And we ll play the song
Em C
We used to dance to every night
G
And we ll sing our hymn
C
Till our friends join in
Em C
And everything s alright
G
And we ll sing

[Chorus]
G C
This is the end of the show
Em C
Thank you all for tuning in
G C
This is the end of the road
Em C
Well thank you Jezebel for being, being my friend
