B       F#      Ebm     F#      G#m     B       F#

B       F#              Ebm
Silence drawing a crowd
F#                          G#m
Surely you would have known
B                                F#
Never could have read it aloud
B       F#                 Ebm
Woven webs cover the walls
F#                       G#m
Wine stains on the floor
 B                 F#
Of the Oslo novelist now
 E        F#                     B     F#
Come tomorrow this will all be gone

E         F#             B     F#
Finally nothing to say
E            F#         B      F#      E      F#
More empty words on the page
B                          F#
Pour a glass all the ribbons are dry
E                           F#             E
Raise a toast for the novelist tonight

Ebm      E      F#
B       F#      Ebm     F#      G#m     B       F#

B          F#                      Ebm
Sun down fell, starting to wake
F#                G#m
Tragedy at a time
  B                        F#
Getting later earlier every day
B          F#            Ebm
Words in lines and I
  F#                G#m            B                 F#
```

Can t decide, how to make this end any other way
