Stealing Tomorrow
Great Lake Swimmers

Stealing Tomorrow (Great Lake Swimmers)

C#                  G#     Bbm    F
Is this place shaking or is it me
          F#                C#               F#                  C#
Why canâ€™t I feel mean without you and everything become more true
              F#            C#
The more that I believe in you
C#          G#
Stealing tomorrow
        C#              G#         Bbm                F
I donâ€™t care what you think, Iâ€™m going to take it away
           F#                      C#
While I am stealing tomorrow from today
         F#             C#
Stealing tomorrow from today
         F#             C#
Stealing tomorrow from today
        G#
Take it away
      C#               G#                Bbm                    F
And I built this wall around me and I refuse to let anyone through
   F#            C#
Oh no, not even you
    F#            C#
No, no, not even you
        F#            C#
No, no, no, not even you
         C#                    G#                  Bbm          F
And itâ€™s like someone else is driving, like this body isnâ€™t mine
            F#                 C#
I changed myself without even telling you
         F#                  C#
Or even asking, and I need relief
                   F#                 C#
â€˜Cause I canâ€™t be sober and win you over
              F#
And relate my temperature
              C#
I have to get out of here
         F#              C#
And you donâ€™t even know half of it
         F#                            C#
I cannot turn it off, I donâ€™t have a switch for that
              F#                         C#
Havenâ€™t crash landed yet, havenâ€™t crash landed yet
           F#             C#

Stealing tomorrow from today
