What A Day
Greg Laswell

```
Fm                  C#
What a day to be alive
Fm                Eb        C#
What a day to realize I m not dead
Fm                    C#
What a day to save a dime
Fm     Eb           C#
What a day to die trying

Fm                      C#
what a way to say goodbye
Fm            Eb        C#
What a wonderful life now all aligned
Fm                      C#
What a way that you survive
Fm     Eb           C#
What a day to say goodnight

Bbm                G#     Eb    Bbm
Bring on the evening hours, I cry
                  G#  Eb       Bbm
Bring on the evidence of my life
Bbm                G#     Eb    Bbm
Bring on the evening hours, I cry
                  G#  Eb       G#6
Bring on the evidence of my life
      Fm
Of my life

Fm                    C#
What a day to give a damn
Fm     Eb       C#
What a day for gone with the wind
Fm                    C#
What a day to start again
Fm     Eb           C#
What a day to give up dry gin

Bbm                G#     Eb    Bbm
Bring on the evening hours, I cry
                  G#  Eb       Bbm
Bring on the evidence of my life
Bbm                G#     Eb    Bbm
Bring on the evening hours, I cry
                  G#  Eb       G#6
Bring on the evidence of my life
      Fm
```

Of my life

```
G#
What a day to visit Seattle
Fm
What a day for San Francisco
G#
What a day, holy Toledo
Fm
What a day to get in the air and go
G#
What a day to give up smoking
Fm
What a day to absorb Jim Beam and
G#                        Fm
What a day to welcome a baby
             G#        Fm G# Fm
And to begin breathing

G#
What a day to visit Seattle
Fm
What a day for San Francisco
G#
What a day, holy Toledo
Fm
What a day to get in the air and go
G#
What a day to give up smoking
Fm
What a day to absorb Jim Beam and
G#                        Fm
What a day to welcome a baby
             G#
And to begin breathing
Fm G# Fm G#
```