Berkeley Girl
Harper Simon

Artist: Harper Simon
Song: Berkeley Girl Tabbed by Roj Vincent

Tuning: Capo on third fret

Intro: Bb Eb F Bb

Bb Eb F
She is juniper and roses

Bb
She is amethyst and pearl

Eb F
And though she makes her home in Hollywood

Bb
She s really just a Berkeley girl

Eb F
She s the breeze on Sunday morning

Bb
Blowin down the country lane

Eb F
She s got the style of Paulette Goddard

Bb
And the smile of Joan Fonteyne

F7 Cm
And she drives a Carmen Ghia

F7 Cm
Through the streets of Silver Lake

F
And the hills of Echo Park

Bb Eb F
She is crinoline and satin

Bb

She is leopard skin and lace

Eb F
Hard to believe that she believed in me

Bb
When I was such a hopeless case

Eb F
And she knows from love and service

Bb
Yes she knows from peace of mind

Eb F
To be not sinister in purpose

Bb
And to never be unkind

F7 Cm
And she loves a Tulsi garden

F7 Cm
And she loves her rock and roll

F
And she s never far from my mind

No.....

Bb Eb F
She is juniper and roses

Bb
Guess I ll say it once again

Eb F
And though we are no longer lovers

Bb
I know she ll always be my friend

Eb F
So if you ever ride beside her

Bb
Travellin down the one â€“ oh â€“ one

```
                                Eb                F
Be thankful that you re with a Berkeley girl

                                            Bb
Who s beautiful beneath the moon and the sun

Bb                      Eb                                  Bb
Ahaaaa...............Ahaaaa.............Ahaaa......ah.....ah

Bb                      Eb                                  F
Ahaaaa...............Ahaaaa.............Ahaaa......ah.....ah

Mmmmmmmmm..........

Ahaaaaa............Berkeley girl
```

Not too sure about the G7, but please say if you have a better chord fit...:-)

Harper Simon is Paul Simon s son and her s a link to his web site:

http://harpersimon.com/

Cheers.....