Intro: C# G# Bbm

```
            C#                G#
We used to love, we used to hate,
          C#              G#
We used to treasure every minute,
         C#              G#
Those long gone-by days together,
        C#               G#
I thought that we would last forever.

  C#     G#     Bbm
But now youâ€™re gone.

       C#                      G#
We used to laugh, we used to cry,
      C#                  G#
We used to share every secret,
       C#            G#               C#
You were the only one that filled my mind.

C#      G#     Bbm     F#              C#     G#    Bbm

         C#            G#
And I donâ€™t know just what to do,
        Bbm              F#
When youâ€™re not here to love me too,
 C#               G#      Bbm
Now that youâ€™re gone.

            C#                G#
We used to hug, we used to fight,
            C#                G#
We used to run into the breeze,
            C#                G#
These long gone-by days together,
            C#                G#
I thought that we would last forever.

  C#     G#     Bbm
But now youâ€™re gone.
