           Gm          D7                     Gm               D7
There s a part of me you ll never know, the only thing I ll never show
           Gm          D7                     Gm               D7
It s plain to see it s trying to speak, cherished dreams forever asleep
Cm                        Gm         Cm                       Eb
Hopelessly I ll love you endlessly, hopelessly I ll give you everything
                     Bb               D
But I won t give you up, I won t let you down
   G#    G         Cm    F                Bb
I won t leave you falling if the moment ever comes
