Stranger In Paradise
Neil Young

```
-------------------
STRANGER IN PARADISE

NOTE : This song is a piano song that you have to listen
if you want to sing and play guitar correctly.
Also, you have variations of basses on the intro
and at the end of the song, over a unique chord
...easier thing to do on a piano than on a guitar.
This is a beautiful song, so take time to learn it and don t give up at the first try!

INTRO : Variations of basses on a F

A             B                  E
  Take my hand, I m a stranger in paradise.
C#m              F#m         B              E
  All lost in a wonderland, a stranger in paradise.
Ebm E G#m    F#m          B                   E
If I stand starry-eyed  that s a danger in paradise
A C#m                F#m        B        E for angels [?] from beside  a [?] like you.

E          Em   Em  F G Am
I saw your face and I  ascended,
F#m         A           E         F#m
out of the common place  into the rare.
             F              Bbm
Somewhere in space I hang suspended
        A                             E
until I know there s a chance that you care.

                       F#m
won t you answer this loving prayer
B                 E
 of a stranger in paradise?
C#m                 F#m           B                E
 Don t leave me in dark despair  for all that I hunger for.
Ebm  E G#m F#m              B                   G#m
But open your angel eyes  to the stranger in paradise,
A C#m                 F#m      B                Emaj7
    and tell him that he will be a stranger no more.
F1             E2
