 F
She used to work in a diner
 F
Never saw a woman look finer
F                                                      Bb

I used to order just to watch her float across the floor
                   F
She grew up in a small town
  F
Never put her roots down
  F
Daddy always kept movin  so she did too

  F              Bb     F
Somewhere on a desert highway
             Bb       F
She rides a Harley-Davidson
 F                                  Bb
Her long blond hair flyin  in the wind
                     Bb        F
She s been runnin  half her life
              Bb          F
The chrome & steel she rides
                                   Bb
Collidin  with the very air she breathes
              F
The air she breathes

INTRO

 F
You know it aint easy
 F          Bb   F
You got to hold on
 F                                 Bb
She was an unknown legend in her time
```

Now she s dressing two kids
                    F
Lookin for a magic kiss
 F
She gets the far-away look in her eyes
