CHORUS 1:

                         D                   D/G             Bm
  He was a professional dog food taster but no-one would believe him
                        D                           D/G        Bm
  They thought he might be a spy but in reality he was quite boring
     Gmaj7       A                       A/E  G
  He worked for all the major companies
                A/E                       G  A
  He worked his way up the dog food chain,   he was a professional

VERSE 1:

F                                                                  D
  He worked so hard, he never found the time for friends, he never socialised
F                                                                        D
  He felt so alone  cause when he talked about his job, people though he told them lies
  C              A
  Nobody could believe...

CHORUS 2:

  A                       D                   D/G             Bm
  He was a professional dog food taster but no-one would believe him
                        D                           D/G        Bm
  They thought he might be a spy but in reality he was quite boring
     Gmaj7       A                       A/E  G
  He worked for all the major companies
                A/E                       G  A
  He worked his way up the dog food chain,   he was a professional

VERSE 2:

F                                                              D
  One day cross the bar, he caught the eye of a girl he did not recognise
F                                                                    D
  When he asked her what she did for work, well the answer came as a very big surprise
  C              A*  A/A  A/B
  It was hard to believe

CHORUS 3:

   A                      D                   D/G        Bm
  She was a professional dog food taster, she totally believed him
                          D                           D/G        Bm
  People thought she might be a spy but in reality she was quite boring
      Gmaj7       A                       A/E  G
  She worked for all the major companies
                A/E                       G   A
  She worked her way up the dog food chain,   she was a professional

 BRIDGE:
D                       D/G     Bm
  They fell in love and love is all they ever wanted
               D            D/G     Bm     Bm/F
  They re the same, no-one could believe
A                        A/E  G
  They bought a big house in country for the kids
                A/E                           G
  And they they opened their own dog food factory

CHORUS 4:
    A                          D                    D/G            Bm
  They were both professional dog food tasters, but no-one would believe them
                             D                                D/G         Bm
  People thought they might both be spies but in reality they were quite boring
       Gmaj7       A                       A/E  G
  They worked for all the major companies
                    A/E                       G    A
  They worked their way up the dog food chain
