Verse 1:

Bm

You sold your soul to stay afloat

G F#m Bm

they raised the stakes to watch you fold

locked the doors and tapped the phones

G F#m

and you just fled to Mexico

Em G

No one s gonna fix all your mistakes

Em D F#

Dancing with the devil, you had better

Bm A

keep your hands above the waist

Chorus:

G A

Everything you touch

Bm

will turn to sand

G

when you see the

A

world as nothing more

F#

than money in your hand

G

You ll never get the

A

chance to understand

Bm

just that it s like to sleep without these

G

voices in your head

A

the silent chorus

of the dead you left behind

Interlude: Am--G x2 F--E(hold)

Verse 2:

Bm

You taste the treason on her tongue

G

Bm

you settle in the D.C. slum hilltop house in Washington

G

F#m

that they call the rising sun

Em

She washed the lipstick

G

smudges from her face

Em

D

Sleeping with the state

F#

you will eventually just learn to love your taste

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

Bm

[Listen! Open
the door Fed window!
He has no idea how bad it is

G A

out there! He has no idea!

Bm

He has no idea! None! And

G A
Bill Poole? Has no idea!]

Bm
A new hope for the poor folks

G A
just a penny to the rich

Bm
There s a rally down on one street as a fire

G A
burns in Kensington

G
As you carve another

A Bm
notch into your gun

G Set the spark and

A
take your mark

F#
you ve finally got them on the run

(Repeat Chorus)
