Jewel: Intuition
These chords are different from the other versions out there. These are easier to play, but it still sounds okay if you want to play with the actual song.
This is the first song Iâ€™ve ever put on here.

Chorus repeats over and over again until the end

TIP: picking style sounds best of you use 4 beats
Ex: for the Am hit just the A string twice and then strum twice. Play the other chords like that except for the Am/F which sounds good if you just strum it once. If you play with the song it will help you get the rhythm.

Enjoy!
